Whi-ther sli- thers the snail, whe-ther sca - ling a pail, or sli - ding o'er leaves of hea-ther, _____ he sel - dom fails to be - sni- vel_ his trails with a sil - ve-ry sla - the-ry sla- ver. _____

When the wea- ther_ is wet, and the sun-light is veiled, with the hea-vens all pale and a - driz- zle, _____ the slug- gish_ snail nei-ther di- thers nor quails to_ lug all his car-go wher - e- ver. _____

When the wea- ther_ is dry and the flo-wers all wi- ther_ with the air_ all hot and a - siz- zle, _____ he stops his tra - vail to snooze snug in_ his shell and_ hold his es - car-got to - ge- ther. _____
